Description

Antique door with original frame and hinges, richly decorated, of Neapolitan origin, dating to the 18th century (1700s).

Crafted from solid wood, it features an elegant sage green lacquered finish enhanced by gilded floral and scroll motifs, typical of Neapolitan decorative tradition of the period.

The shaped panels and carved reliefs lend refinement and strong decorative impact, making this piece suitable both for historic architectural settings and as a striking feature in refined contemporary interiors.

An authentic period piece, retaining its original patina and age-related wear.

The height can be reduced by approximately 14 cm, if required, to accommodate lower openings.
