Description

Charming solid cherrywood crib from the 19th century, featuring an elegant Louis-Philippe line. The heads are slightly scalloped and framed by molded uprights with capitals. The front offers a beautiful flamed grain of the wood, bringing warmth and character to the set. There are nice carved applique elements on the sides, typical of quality furniture from this period. Sound and stable set, with a nice original patina. Sleek, clean mattress with no stains. Delivery in France 150EUR. Contact us for more information.
