

Pair Of Silver-plated Bronze Candlesticks, 19th Century.

3 700 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Length : 28 cm

Height : 43,5 cm

Description

Elegant pair of armorial candlesticks, in silver-plated bronze, in the Louis XIV style. Very decorative, they feature two arms of light richly decorated with delicately chased foliage, scrolls and gadroons. The shaft is embellished on all 4 sides with medallions featuring antique profiles, adding elegance and character. The widely flared circular base is decorated with a frieze in relief and engraved with a beautiful coat of arms stamped with a comtal crown, supported by two lions. French workmanship of the highest quality. Ideal for a decoration with character, whether classical or modern, an elegant interior or a reception table. A candlestick is signed "Eug. Bazart Paris". Slight wear to the silver plating in some places. PARIS, circa 1850-1880. Eugène BAZART was a Parisian art bronzier active in the

Dealer

Argenterie Galerie Lassus

Orfèvrerie française du XVIIIème siècle au XX siècle.

Tel : 05 56 81 39 65

Mobile : 06 63 30 85 32

33 Rue Bouffard

Bordeaux 33000

19th century, mainly during the Napoleon III period circa 1850-1880. He belonged to a generation of craftsmen who produced high-quality furnishing bronzes at a time when Paris was the world center of decorative luxury.