Description

Two table lamps with carved wooden architectural elements on the shafts - one in the form of a capital decorated with palmettes, the other in the form of a baluster vase adorned with scrolls and acanthus leaves - both polychromed in gray-blue and yellow ochre with remains of gilding. Old patina, very worn and patchy, showing several layers of successive repainting. Cylindrical shades. The two pieces, of different shapes, are offered as a pair or separately. Italy, 18th century, later mounted as lamps.
