Description

Refined pair of carved wooden consolle tables, finely painted with tempera. The consolles are crescent-shaped, with four truncated pyramid legs typical of the period. The painted decoration lends great elegance, with a faux Bardiglio marble effect on the top, while the body and legs feature a white background against which ivy vines stand out. This pair of consolle tables exudes great taste and refinement, adding a touch of class to any space. Tuscan manufacture from the Louis XVI period, around the end of the 18th century.
