Description

Original patinated terracotta sculpture of a long-haired greyhound reclining in majesty on an Empire-style daybed, circa 1900, signed on the front right at the point Ch Chivot Pour Charles Chivot (1866-1941). This painter, sculptor and illustrator was a pupil of Léon Bonnat. In sculpture, he is renowned for his depictions of animals. Our dog on its bed is highly realistic, the sculpture delicate, fine and detailed. Good condition, a few chips in the base visible on the photos, the dog's right hind leg glued back on (invisible except from the underside of the work).
