Description

Solid silver covered box, rocaille decoration, Hénin & Cie, Minerve 1er titre, 340 g
Charming solid silver covered box made by Hénin & Cie, active in Paris in the second half of the 19th century. Bearing the Minerve 1er titre hallmark (950/1000) and the Hénin & Cie master hallmark. The body is richly adorned with a rocaille decoration in relief, composed of cartouches, scrolls, foliage and asymmetrical motifs inspired by the Louis XV style. The lid, with its cut-out contours, echoes this aesthetic with engraved and repoussé decoration, centered on a stylized ornamental motif, framed by foliage. The rim is underlined by a gadrooned frieze, bringing rhythm and elegance to the whole. Very fine table or toilet object, typical of the historicist taste of the 19th century,
