Description

Suite de 10 couverts en argent massif, modèle Louis XVI au laurier et monogrammé, Hénin & Cie, 833 g Suite of solid silver flatware including six spoons and six forks, made by Hénin & Cie, an important 19th-century Parisian silversmith. Each piece bears the Minerve hallmark (1st title) as well as the Hénin & Cie master hallmark, with rose, star and H&C initials. The model features an elegant filleted and fluted line, characteristic of the Louis XVI style, embellished with laurel garlands and stylized foliage. The spatulas are adorned with a finely executed engraved monogram inscribed in an oval cartouche framed with laurel. Homogeneous ensemble of fine craftsmanship, typical of the neo-classical taste of the late 19th century. Total weight: 833 grams of silver. Good overall
