Description

Suite de 12 couverts en argent massif, modèle uni-plat, Hénin & Cie, 973 gA suite of solid silver flatware comprising six spoons and six forks, made by Hénin & Cie, an important 19th-century Parisian silversmith. Each piece bears the Minerve hallmark (1st title) as well as the Hénin & Cie master hallmark, with rose, star and H&C initials. The model is of the uni-flat type, characterized by a sober and elegant line, without relief decoration, highlighting the purity of the metal and the balanced proportions of the pieces. This type of model, inherited from 18th century shapes, is particularly appreciated for its timeless sobriety and everyday use. The spatulas are adorned with a finely executed, engraved PC monogram. Homogeneous set, of fine workmanship. Total weight: 973 grams of
