

Oriental Shamshir Sabre

5 250 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Bon état

Description

Shamshir Arab sword of Turco-Persian origin, this type of sword was very fashionable in the Arabian Peninsula in the 18th and 19th centuries. Horn plate scabbard decorated with copper and silver inlays and green lacquered metal. Chased silver leaf endpiece with green lacquered metal teardrop. Silver-nickel-plated steel crosspiece with two straight quillons, silver wire hilt base. Highly curved damascus blade, decorated with silver lettering in cartouches. Blade length 76cm. Wooden scabbard covered with pink chagrin stitched with silver thread, with four silver-rimmed iron fittings. All mounts are en suite. Feel free to ask any questions .

Dealer

Les Collectionneurs d'exception
Antiquités

Mobile : 0680846185

112 quai de Bezons

Argenteuil 95100