Description

Large Provençal-style wardrobe in solid oak, dating back to the mid-1800s and later lacquered and painted in the early 20th century. The structure is in good condition and aesthetically pleasing, with two doors and two small drawers underneath. The lacquerwork has not been retouched. It can be used as a wardrobe (originally it had a clothes rail) or as a pantry with the addition of shelves. Unique and very spacious. Shipping costs to be agreed upon. Fast and secure shipping. Payment accepted: bank transfer.
