of painting privately, in 1963 he decided to take part in his first Salon. His landscapes soon met with great success, and Claude Jousset continued to exhibit his work. He received numerous awards, including the 1st prize for French landscape artists at the Salon des Artistes Français in 1967. Since then, he has been taken under the wing of numerous galleries in Paris, London and Vienna. A landscape painter, he depicts Paris, his favorite subject, as well as landscapes of the French countryside, the Normandy seaside or the Venetian lagoon...

Claude Jousset defines himself as a "painter of poetic reality".Free shipping to mainland France.
