Description

Decorative Sculpture - Lovers in Alabaster on Bronze Elephant - Green Serpentine Base - Signed R. Romano RomanelliElegant decorative sculpture in mixed media combining alabaster, patinated bronze, and green serpentine (hard stone). The work depicts a finely carved pair of lovers in alabaster, seated on a bronze elephant, the whole composition resting on a polished green hard-stone base.The piece stands out for its refinement and balanced composition: the luminous softness of the alabaster highlights the intimacy of the lovers, while the bronze elephant, powerful and stable, introduces a symbolic sense of strength and protection. The green serpentine base, with its deep natural tones, enhances the luxurious and decorative character of the sculpture.Condition: perfect
