KLEIN Friedrich Franz Albert KLEIN known as fred Frits KLEIN born in Bandung in 1898, died in Paris in 1990 Father of the artist and filmmaker Yves KLEIN, world-famous for his blue monochromes Frits KLEIN is nicknamed the painter of light A pure, radiant light, far removed from any melancholy. For his 80th birthday, a retrospective of his work at the Musée Van Gogh in 1978 was a landmark event. In 1925, Klein traveled to the south of La France, to Cagnes sur mer. The gentle nuances of the South transformed his palette. The intensity of the light revived his childhood memories of Java. He married Marie Raymond and their son Yves is born in 1928. Art critics compare his work to that of the painter
