Description

A Touch of Elegance and History for Your Home If you are looking for a furnishing accessory that combines the timeless elegance of Murano glass with the history of Italian craftsmanship, this pair of boxes with lids is the opportunity you have been waiting for. Crafted in 1920, these pieces are a perfect example of skill and refinement. The Art of Murano Glass Murano glass is world-renowned for its quality and artisanal heritage. These hand-blown boxes were created using the ribbed glass technique, which gives them a unique and fascinating texture. The clear crystal color captures light extraordinarily, creating a play of reflections that enhances the surrounding environment. The glass knob on the lid adds a touch of class and allows for easy opening. Standing 22 cm tall with a
