Description

Nuremberg wrought-iron chest, cut out and assembled with rivets and screws. The chest was the furniture par excellence in the Middle Ages, used to store all kinds of objects. Iron chests were reserved for precious objects. The mechanism attached to the underside of the lid covers the entire surface with sophisticated gears that operate numerous bolts with a single turn of the key. Inside is a small cassette for even the most secret belongings. Two sturdy side handles allow it to be transported. Good condition. The key works perfectly. DIMENSIONS: 57cm x 30cm and 30cm high. Delivery on quotation.
