Description

Timeless Elegance for Your TableThere are objects capable of transforming a simple daily gesture into an experience of pure luxury. This splendid pair of Murano glass biscuit stands from 1930 is exactly that: a perfect blend of the apparent fragility of blown glass and the strength of a design that has endured nearly a century while remaining contemporary.Venetian Craftsmanship of the 1930s
Handcrafted by Murano glass masters, these stands feature a refined ribbed workmanship that lends movement and depth to the crystal-colored (transparent) glass. Light plays between the grooves, creating brilliant reflections that will highlight not only your sweets or biscuits but the entire atmosphere of the room. Standing 12 cm tall with a diameter of 22 cm, they possess the
