Description

Monumental neo-Renaissance walnut sideboard, Florence era, Capital of Italy. The sumptuously hand-carved sideboard, both in its storage part and in its very rich shelf-like riser, features numerous dragon, putti and lion heads, two of which are used as drawer handles perfectly inserted into the architecture of the furniture. The fruit carvings and the multiple frames sculpted with ever-changing motifs are also beautiful. Also available is a beautiful display case from the same studio. Measurements: 140 x 66, height 250
