Description

Charming early 20th-century Liberty-style bathroom vanity, crafted in Italy with ivory-cream lacquered wood and a beautiful hand-antiqued finish.

It features an original period ceramic white basin with gracefully curved raised rim, integrated splashback, central drain, and tap holes. The cabinet below showcases the soft, flowing lines typical of Italian Liberty (Art Nouveau), supported by elegantly carved scroll feet that give the piece lightness and grace.

The front is adorned with delicate decorative details: two small top drawers with floral rosette knobs, a smooth central panel, and two additional side drawers with matching stylized flower handles. The large single-door cabinet below opens to reveal a spacious interior with a wooden
