Description

Sculpted female torso in vintage studio ceramics | Terracotta / Bronze patina
Powerful, evocative piece, typical of mid-20th century studio art or postmodern art. This hand-carved female torso has a magnificent aged patina, imitating bronze or patinated iron, although it appears to be made of terracotta or high-fired ceramic. Its classic "fragmented" style is reminiscent of Greek antiquities, but with a raw, modern organic texture. Ideal centerpiece for a gallery wall, pedestal or minimalist sideboard. Subject: classic female torso fragment. Material: thick-fired ceramic/earthenware with dark metallic/earthtone glaze. Base: currently presented on a marble base (please specify if base is included!). Condition: excellent vintage condition. Aged appearance is intentional. No chips or cracks, apart from artistic
