Jean Carlus 1852-1930 French Bulldog Original Plaster Cast

650 EUR

Signature : Jean Carlus 1852-1930

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Plaster

Length : 23,5 cm

Width : 13,5 cm

Height : 22,5 cm

Description

Jean Carlus 1852-1930 Bouldogue francais platre original signed on the terrace patine gomme laque de moulage Jean Carlus is not known for his animal sculpture.probably a commission, but the attitude of the bulldog is particularly well executedand has nothing to envy the great animal sculptors of the period.sculptors of the periodJeanMarius Siméon Carlus isFrench sculptorFrench sculptor,born March 21, 1852 in Lavauranddied June 15, 1930 in Saint-Mandé.Studentof AlexandreFalguière andAntoninMercié atÉcoledes beaux-arts de Paris,Jean Carlus is notably the author of the MonumentàBuffondugardendes Plantes de Paris,whose plaster model is preserved in MontbardatmuseumMuseum in Montbard.Memberof the jury of the Salonwhere

Dealer

Y.Laurent Hogommat

Sculpture

Mobile : 0683070180

3 rue de beauregard

Amenucourt 95510

he exhibited1880, he became a member of the Société des artistesof French Artists in1886 and exhibited there without competition. He received awards for his worksin 1886 (3rd class medal) and 1899 (1st class medal).In 1889, he won a bronze medal at the ExpositionExposition universellea silver medal at thein 1900 forhis Monument aux Instituteurs.Hewas named Chevalier de la Légiond'honneur in1920.