Description

Pair of Sanderson chintz curtains, ribboned rose decoration - England, 20th century. Extremely elegant, this pair of chintz curtains signed by the renowned publisher Sanderson embodies all the refinement of British interiors. The delicately composed décor features large bouquets of old roses in shades of pink and soft green, subtly entwined with ribbons and cords adorned with pompons. The ensemble is punctuated by light, graceful foliage, in a romantic, timeless spirit. This emblematic motif, at once warm and sophisticated, aptly evokes the charm of English homes, between floral tradition and decorative elegance. Crafted in a beautiful chintz, these curtains offer a soft, generous fall, perfectly enhanced by their lining and gathered braid already in place. Dimensions: Height: 312 cm + 20
