

Pair Of Restauration-charles X Candlesticks

890 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Description

in chased, gilded and patinated bronze of stylized baluster form. They are topped by binnacles featuring vases Médicis adorned with leaves resting on a column with a capital decorated with cordelières alternating with rows of pearls, moldings and interlacing, the "antique-style" patinated shaft set in a pedestal support forming a vase made up of acanthus leaves. The base is adorned with horns of plenty assembled by ribbon bows, rows of alternating pearls... Work from the first quarter of the 19th century, circa 1820. With their gilding and patina. Height. : 26.6 cm / diam. : 12.4 cm (very good overall condition / candle wax, dust and minor oxidation) A pair of candleholders might appear obsolete today... Placed as pendants on a piece of furniture, they are nevertheless the essential finishing touch to a

Dealer

Cabinet de Sèvres & associé

Mobilier, objets d'Art, tableaux, sculptures, éléments de décors anciens

Mobile : +33663711606

31, rue Leyteire

Bordeaux 33000

decoration. They can also be used to dress a table for dinner parties or festive occasions.