

Collector's Knife

2 000 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Parfait état

Material : Metal

Length : totale 55,5 cm

Description

We present this spectacular 19th-century collector's knife with a double-sided damascened blade. The brass, mother-of-pearl and horn handle inlaid with bone subjects, on one side a lion and on the other a figure. This knife is notched and is extremely large, open 55.5 cm, closed 30 cm, origin may be Châtellerault. Perfect condition, missing the ring to pull and release the blade. Personal collection. Port extra (E26)

Dealer

Forezienne d'antiquités

Antiquaire généraliste

Mobile : 06 73 22 83 89

10 bis avenue de la libération

Montbrison 42600