Description

Set of glazed terracotta pastry molds in warm orange-brown hues. Alsatian regional work, richly decorated in relief. Featuring traditional motifs: grape cluster, fish, and a finely stylized child's figure, evoking the popular and festive imagination. These molds, once used for sweet or savory preparations, are today superb decorative elements, imbued with authenticity and memory. Patina from use, traces of time, charm intact. Alsace - 19th century Handcrafted pieces full of character and history.
