Description

Elegant Biedermeier three-drawer chest of drawers, made circa 1910, exemplifying all the refined sophistication and timeless elegance of early 20th-century European furniture..This fine quality piece features a superb veneer of walnut burl, set off by contrasting ebonized moldings and delicate brass keyways and handles. Each drawer testifies to fine cabinetwork and offers generous storage space, while the lion claw legs bring strength and balance to the ensemble.This chest of drawers perfectly embodies the great principles of Biedermeier aesthetics - simplicity, harmony and an emphasis on the nobility of materials - combining neoclassical sobriety with understated opulence. It will ideally find its place in a refined interior, whether in a living room, an entrance hall or a master bedroom..Carefully
