PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Resting During The Flight To Egypt. 17th Century. Copper, Cantarini Surround. Bolonese School.

5 500 EUR

Signature : entourage de Simone Cantarini

Period : 17th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Copper

Length : 23,5

Width : 18,5

Description

Magnificent 17th-century oil on copper bySimone Cantarini, Bolognese school.Represents "Resting during the Flight into Egypt".Painted on a copper panel in good condition.First half of the 17th century.Some minor restorations. The Bologna school of painting flourished between the 16th and 17thcenturies, rivaling Florence and Rome as a center of painting.its most important representatives were the Carracci family, includingLudovido Carracci and his two cousins, the brothers Agostino Carracci andAnnibale Carracci. Later, it includes other Baroque painters:Le Dominiquin and Giovanni Lanfranco, active mainly in Rome,eventually Le Guerchin and Guido Reni, SIMONE CANTARINI, andthe Bolonese Academy of the Incamminati which is directed by LodovicoCarracci.As far as our work

Dealer

Jean-Claude Labigne Antiquités
Tableaux et objets d'art
Mobile : 0681269767

Villa Hermès,7, rue André Theuriet. 74000 ANNECY
Annecy 74000

is concerned, my research has led meto compositions very comparable to those by Cantarini.We can therefore assume that it was done by one of his pupils or followers.The dimensions of the copper salt are, 23.5 cm x 18.5 cm.It is presented in a French oak key frame also from the XVIICentury. in very good condition. Dimensions with painting, 28 cm x 24 cm.No need for restoration.