Description

View of Rome - Roman ForumRome, late 18th centuryOil on copperDimensions: 25 × 30 cm including frame, 20 × 24 cmPeriod: late 18th centuryProvenance: RomeRefined oil-on-copper painting depicting an evocative view of the Roman Forum, executed in the late 18th century. In the foreground, the imposing columns of the Temple of Saturn can be identified, while the Capitoline Hill rises in the background. The composition, enlivened by small figures, favors a poetic and atmospheric reconstruction, intended to convey the timeless charm of the Eternal City. The painterly handling and the use of copper lend the work exceptional luminosity and chromatic refinement.Works of this kind were prized souvenirs of the Grand Tour, the formative journey undertaken by European collectors and
