Description

We are pleased to present this splendid oil painting on plywood panel, dating back to the late 19th century. This magnificent painting of a reclining girl is signed lower right: A. Villa. It is likely a work by the Italian painter Aleardo Villa (Revello, February 12, 1865 - Milan, December 31, 1906), without authentication. The painting depicts a young girl reclining, leaning on a large cushion. On the front is a large bouquet of flowers, probably hydrangeas. The girl, with voluminous, curly black hair, has typical Mediterranean features. The great artistic quality of this small painting is evident in the bold, textured brushstrokes and the soft colors that perfectly complement the romantic atmosphere of the scene. The girl is absorbed in her thoughts, and the painter has perfectly succeeded in
