Description

Set of 2 small Greek-style terracotta vases, entirely hand-fashioned and decorated with black figures. The larger of the two is decorated with a foot soldier; its slender line takes the form of a small "Oenochoè" with a long neck ending in a spout with a high lateral grip. The second vase takes the form of an "Aryballe" with a slender body and characteristic flat neck. It is decorated on all sides with a chimera and a large feline. All in good overall condition. Italian work dating from the late 19th / early 20th century. NB/ Possible shipment to France via Colissimo with tracking and insured against signature: 30 euros . Other destinations on request.
