Description

Translating the snowy aspects and muted melancholy of our Normandy landscapes as described by his friend Maurice Louvrier, Léonard Bordes is particularly acclaimed for his snowy landscapes.In this mysteriously atmospheric oil, Bordes depicts a snowy pond. While the painter's touch is recognizable, this oil is very impressionistic in its violet and blue hues, atypical of the painter who more readily works with an earthy palette.Dimensions: oil: 50 x 61 cm; with frame: 71.5 x 82.5 cm
