Description

Translating the snowy aspects and muted melancholy of our Normandy landscapes as described by his friend Maurice Louvrier, Léonard Bordes is particularly acclaimed for his snow landscapes. This highly constructed oil painting constitutes a tangle of lines. Yet, despite the elegance rendered by this geometric aspect, the slightly curved character of the lines, as well as the presence of figures, allows the painting to retain dynamism and the painter's characteristic touch. Dimensions: oil: 45.8 x 54.8 cm; with frame: 66 x 75 cm
