Description

Writing desk, mother-of-pearl chinoiserie flap - 20th century
Elegant antique black lacquered wood flap, embellished with refined oriental-style decorations, crafted using the chinoiserie technique. The front features a figurative scene with characters, architecture, and naturalistic motifs finely painted in gold tones, the mother-of-pearl relief figures strikingly standing out against the dark background. The flap opens to reveal an interior organized with small compartments and a central compartment with a small drawer, ideal for correspondence and everyday items. The writing surface, supported by elegant lateral supports that automatically extend when the flap opens, offers a large and functional surface. The piece rests on classically styled curved legs joined by a central crosspiece,
