Description

A rare and beautiful Directoire console table in very good condition, in a sober 19th-century Directoire style, with a dark gray porphyry top and two functional drawers on the front. This carefully assembled piece of furniture is elegant with its base in flat cross-braces with a curved plinth front and its flat columns protruding outwards. Mounted in light oak, this clean original piece of furniture is extremely practical and its elegance will seduce you; Easy to place anywhere, it will play a decorative role in an assertive "Neo-Classical" spirit and can serve as a sideboard in a dining room, for example, or display beautiful objects in the living room. Also suitable for an entrance hall, placed under a mirror, this pretty piece of furniture will fulfill its role with sobriety (mid-19th century Parisian
