Description

Important Art Deco period sideboard / enfilade in engraved polychrome glass with heraldic decoration - highly refined and qualitative decorative workVery spectacular piece of furniture of large dimensions resting on a plinth with sculpted bases in the shape of column bases.The front is composed of five leaves richly decorated with glass panels in a heraldic spirit, each adorned with stylized coats of arms framed with scrolls and volutes on a gilded ochre background. The whole is underlined by a continuously decorated frame in the same spirit, offering great visual unity.The structure, in dark-stained solid wood, contrasts elegantly with the polychrome of the panels. The sides and back are beautifully crafted in solid oak.The interior offers ample storage volume.The cabinet rests on
