

17th Century Folding Fork

190 EUR

Period : 17th century

Condition : Etat d'usage

Material : Wrought iron

Length : 17,5 cm

Description

Rare and astonishing folding fork in wrought iron and brass. From the 17th century, this 4-pronged fork folds in on itself for easy transport when traveling. The spatula-shaped end is decorated with a fleur-de-lys on one side and a trefoil on the other. A fine collector's item with a superb period patina.

Dealer

Antiquités Expertise Guillaume Rullier

Antique dealer, 17th to 19th century furniture.

Tel : 05 49 00 02 93

Mobile : 06 12 71 82 93

35 rue du marché notre Dame

Poitiers 86000