Description

Antique white marble bust of a young shepherd boy from the Agro Romano region, signed by Giuseppe Carnevale. The bust rests on a small column-shaped pedestal. The figure is depicted in three-quarter profile, with his face turned slightly to the left. He wears a hat with feathers; his curly hair reaches down to his shoulders. He wears a partially open shirt, a buttoned vest, and a jacket; over the jacket is an additional open vest without buttons, featuring serrated edging that could be embroidered or made of animal leather. Across his shoulder runs a strap with a buckle. Carnevale Giuseppe (recorded in 1887)
