Description

Modernist reinterpretation of Michelangelo's masterpiece. Oil on cardboard depicting the stylized head of the Adam from the Sistine Chapel, treated in an Art Deco spirit. The artist offers a refined, monumental vision of the face, playing on the geometry of shapes, smooth volumes and metallic reflections typical of the period. Vibrant palette of greens, blues, ambers and ochres, modulated by soft transitions that lend the subject a sculptural intensity. The stylized volumes and directed light reflect a work inspired by Art Deco statuary and Symbolist painting. On the reverse, studio annotation: "Male Head Study".
