Description

Here's an exceptional piece, produced by master goldsmith Georg Adam Scheid for the Ottoman market in the late 19th or early 20th century! This display is attached to a candle by a hinged clamp to reveal all the beauty of the plique à jour enamel work centered on the calligraphed name of Allah. The holder and candle are photographed for context and are not included in the sale! On the gilt mount and clamp: Austrian greyhound head hallmark numeral 3 on the left and numeral 4 on the right. Georg Adam Scheid round master hallmark: five-pointed star within a crescent moon. About Georg Adam Scheid: click here FINE CONDITION, Vienna circa 1890-1910.
