Description

Gouache on cardboard. Signed and dated.This vase of poinsettias, which should have faded with the last breath of the Christmas trees, stands today like a harbinger of miracles, a crimson velvet creature that has defied winter. Its bracts, which yesterday symbolized an ephemeral liturgy, have withstood the onslaught of frost to surrender, ecstatic, to the first kiss of the April sun.Image dimensions unframed: 34 x 50 cm / 54 x 70 cm with custom frame.
