Description

Dessert plate in fine porcelain, edited by Ligne Blanche, specialized in transposing contemporary works of art onto high-end tableware. The decorations are taken from the work of Jean-Michel Basquiat (1960-1988), a central figure in the New York art scene of the 1980s. His instantly recognizable work combines spontaneous writing, primitive figures, cultural references and raw energy, in an aesthetic directly derived from street art and neo-expressionism. These plates faithfully reproduce several of his emblematic compositions, in a meticulous execution that respects the original graphic intensity. Plates in mint condition. Original box with light wear from use Available models and prices (to choose from) Eyes and Eggs (1983) - 5 available (95EUR/pc)Horn Players (1983) - 3
