Description

Sensual and desirable are the two words come to mind when I see this painting by Paul Garin. Garin, his model is a young woman, with short hair, an open neckline, her face slightly tilted, she appears to be writing or slightly tilted, she appears to be writing or drawing. Her body is partly covered by a loose blanket that slips from her shoulders, revealing a breast and reveals a breast. Paul Garin was born in Nice in 1898, devoted himself to painting. He died in 1963. He painted landscapes of Provence, ports on the Côte d'Azur, views of Nice still lifes and portraits, as well as nudes... His studio was dispersed in 1998 at Hôtel Drouot. His work can be found in numerous private collections and at the Musée de Nice. Nice. Oil on canvas, stamped on the back with the sale of the studio 1998 by
