Hure De Sanglier - Terrine - Jean-paul Gourdon - Glazed Earthenware - Centerpiece

3 800 EUR

Signature : Jean-Paul Gourdon (né en 1956)

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Terracotta

Length : 55

Height : 41

Depth : 40

Description

Jean-Paul GOURDON (Born in 1956).Large sculpture naturalist:Boar's head forming a terrine for a centerpiece decoration. Fired claywhite glazed, Limited edition 50 pieces.Signed and numbered 08/50.Highly refined workfinesse, attention to detail and transparent enamel, the interior delicately decorated with oak leaves, acorns and the inevitable little snail! Height. 41 cmLength: 55 cm - Width: 38 cm Jean-Paul Gourdon is a naturalist animal sculptor, awarded the title of "meilleur ouvrier de France" in 1997. His creations inspired by nature and the 18th century adorn some of Europe's finesttables in Europe, in particular those of Alain Ducasse. He still worksin his Marmandais workshop on ever more imposing creations.

Dealer

Galerie des Victoires
Antiques, Clocks, Furnitures
Mobile : 06 10 14 84 97

Sur rendez-vous et salons ou évènements spécialisés
Paris 75002