Description

A sideboard of French manufacture, dating from the late 19th century (circa 1890), crafted in the Napoleon III style, renowned for its rich ornamentation. The piece features a wooden frame embellished with gilded metal ornamentation and delicate decorative motifs on the front and beneath the top. The top is made of light-coloured marble.

The front door, finely decorated with a central panel adorned with floral motifs and stylised details, has a wooden interior with two shelves, dividing the space into three compartments.

Inside, there is also an
