for a presence that is both aesthetic and prestigious. This rug signed Sonia Delaunay embodies all the modernity and boldness of twentieth-century abstraction. Through a rhythmic composition of geometric shapes, it plays with color contrasts - intense red, deep black, vibrant blue and shades of gray - to create a visual balance that is both dynamic and harmonious. A true work of textile art, this rug doesn't just decorate a space: it structures it and gives it character. The clean lines and colorful flat tints add a contemporary, elegant touch, ideal for sublimating both modern and classic interiors. Inspired by the research of Orphism, this model reflects Sonia Delaunay's desire to integrate art into everyday life. Every detail bears witness to unique artistic craftsmanship, making this rug both decorative and cultural. Perfect for lovers of design and abstract art, this rug is an invitation to transform your space into a vibrant place, where color and form dialogue with sophistication.
