Description

Superb Bresse cabinet in solid walnut, dated XIXe century, from the Bresse region. An emblematic piece of Burgundian rural heritage, it is distinguished by its rustic elegance and the richness of its carved decoration. The door interiors are in elm, work typical of this region. The crossbar is monogrammed and dated. Both movement doors feature handsome molded panels with decoration of floral and foliate motifs, typical of the Bressan style. Top transom finely carved with a flowering basket, symbolizing abundance. Wax patina finish, highlighting the warm walnut color. Spacious interior equipped with adjustable boards on racks, offering large storage space. The left side is equipped with a closet. An authentic piece, ideal for a home with character or an interior
