Description

Beautiful black-lacquered mazarine chest of drawers from the Louis XIV period. Walnut frame and top, drawers mounted with pine dovetails, certainly originating from the South of France. Three drawers in the front with double curves. Drop-down drawer handles and good-quality bronze escutcheons, Regency flower bouquet and shell details. Locks present on the three drawers but keys missing. Post black lacquer. Note: the mazarine commode born under the reign of Louis XIV is recognizable by its 45° console uprights. This classic model can today be "married" with both antique and modern furniture. Floor area: 124 cm X68 cm. Delivery: at buyer's expense. I can suggest various professional carriers.
