Description

Superb pair of white porcelain toilet plates, decorated in fine gold in the Empire style. Each plate is embellished with a monogram "N" framed by a frieze of gilded laurels, a characteristic emblem of the Napoleonic style, with a knotted crown at the bottom. The unglazed backs of the plates reveal the quality of the raw porcelain and attest to their antique authenticity. These pieces are pierced with mounting holes (two or three depending on the plate), ready to be mounted or displayed.
