Description

Oil on canvas signed lower right, depicting a typically Mediterranean landscape, bathed in light. This composition evokes the arid lands of Spain, with its gnarled olive trees, ochre hills and a white house isolated under a limpid sky.The artist deploys here a generous material, worked in part with a knife, offering a striking relief and a very lively vibration of the pictorial surface. Impastos accentuate the expressive power of foliage and soils, while the warm, contrasting palette conveys all the intensity of the Southern climate.The ensemble exudes a luminous, warm atmosphere, characteristic of the work of Gérard Reynier, a painter attached to nature and the landscapes of the Mediterranean basin.Canvas in good condition,from the 90s ,presented in a sober modern frame that perfectly enhances the
