Description

Polychrome Ceramic Madonna by the Italian Bolognese Minghetti Manifactory from the early 1900s, featuring a mantle decorated with small blue, pink and green flowers on an ivory color background. The pale yellow dress and light blue veil beneath are pearlescent. Under the base the inscription Minghetti in cursive script, with a small star above the M and Bologna in block capitals. In good condition, no restorations, this polychrome ceramic bust of the Virgin Mary from the Italian Bolognese manufactory Minghetti comes from a private collection in Milan and dates from the early decades of the 20th century. The Minghetti factory was founded in Bologna by Angelo Minghetti in 1858, initially producing plates and tableware in the Urbino Renaissance style. After his death, his son
